SPRING BREAK CLASSES

We still have spaces available for the following classes.

On Monday, March 22, at 11:00-12:30 we will be having a class creating apple salt and pepper shakers from clay. They will be fired and ready to paint any time after March 29 and students can come in and do the painting on their own. This class is for anyone ages 8 and up and the cost will be $20.

Also on Monday, March 22, at 1:00-2:00 we will be having fun with a bubble paint class. Students will choose a mug, or piece of equal value, for their project. The projects will be fired and ready to pick up any time after April 2nd. This class is for anyone ages 8 and up and the cost will be $20.

On Wednesday, March 24, at 2:00-3:00 we will be having a class creating decorative wall flower vases made from clay. They will be fired and ready to paint any time after March 31st and students can come in and do the painting on their own. This class is for anyone ages 8 and up and the cost will be $20.

On Friday, March 26, at 1:00-1:45 we will be having a magnet class, each student will be painting 5 different magnets. They will be fired and ready to pick up any time after April 2nd. This class is for anyone age 5 to 8 and the cost will be $15.
